

EMERGENCY PET PLAN

Hi....Strataman here,

Be Prepared! It's a phrase we hear often. Do you have an emergency evacuation plan for your pets? If not, read on. Firstly, remember that pets will be frightened in an emergency, and may not be their normal self. You may need to carry your pet down the stairs – this could be difficult if your pet is large! Ensure that you keep a pack containing photos of your pet (in the event they get lost), bowl, collar & lead, food (if fussy) and carry case close to the exit. Time is precious in an emergency – a good plan can save lives.
