

REVIEW, RESPECT, RESOLVE

Hi...Strataman here,

With the need to review your schemes by-laws by the 30th November 2017, let's look at some key areas that deserve consideration.

Parking problems have a huge impact on the lifestyle and stress levels of residents – consider options like council intervention if this is a persistent issue at your scheme and other methods tried in the past have failed.

It is important for the financial viability of your building that the by-laws reflect the lifestyle choices that are important to your owners now and into the future.
