

STRATA HEALTH CHECK

Hi....Strataman here,

A healthy Strata scheme with a communal approach to living is clearly the type of environment that many people are looking to live in.

Let's explore a way that this can be achieved.

Keeping up with the regular maintenance and ensuring that you have a preventative maintenance programme in place is imperative. The owners and residents of the scheme will have confidence that by attending to the minor issues major issues may be able to be averted.

The peace of mind that this attracts is important for your Strata Health.
